

To all whom it may Concern.

$205,65-

Know ye, That Amos C. Brown a Private of Captain Frederick S. Mosher's Company (Co.) 415th Regiment of New York State VOLUNTEERS who was enrolled on the Eighth day of August one thousand eight hundred and Sixty Five to serve Three years or during the war, is hereby Discharged from the service of the United States, this Seventeenth day of June, 1865, at Raleigh N. C. by reason of C.O.V. 73rd Art. Co. 24th June 24th 1865

(No objection to his being re-enlisted is known to exist.)*

Said Private Amos C. Brown was born in Mayfield in the State of New York, is Twenty years of age, 5 feet 5 inches high, Fair complexion, Blue eyes, Brown hair, and by occupation, when enrolled, a Mechanic

Given at Raleigh N.C. this Seventeenth day of June 1865.

August Seaward
1st Lieut 48th N. Y. V.
Commanding the Regt.
a. c. M. 2nd 10th a. c.

*This sentence will be erased should there be any him in the conduct or physical condition of the soldier rendering him unfit for the Army

Frederick Mosher
Capt. Co. 6 115th N. Y. V.

of Gloversville.
DIED SATURDAY NIGHT.

ing, the company being made up of young and middle-aged people of church, as well as many friends of pastor not members of the church appreciate the work done among n. The people of the "Old First ch" know a good thing when they it, and appreciate a good man when have him, which was well proven the manner in which they turned to greet the pastor. There were no es, yet everything seemed to be e "quietly and in order," it being e like a spontaneous moving of the ole to do honor to one whom they come to love. Deacon Bailey, who wielded the "church ice cream dip- for 65 years—or rather since the 1865—was present in all his glory. "Deacon" worked on the old theory there is "more where this came n" and the last the writer saw of he was surrounded by the large e, and was still "dipping." The es of the cake department did their nobly and no person was com- ed to leave with that "hungry feel- " Parkman's full orchestra was ent and discoursed delightful music g the evening. A very interesting t of the evening was when the ole were given an opportunity to y their appreciation of the pastor substantial way, and N. H. Anibal few words in behalf of those pres- and many friends not able to be ent, presented the pastor with a et and its contents, it being sur- d that it contained quite a of a money. Mr. Backus al- gh under great strain, responded feelingly, speaking of his love for people who have honored him. His rks were made with much feeling greatly moved those who heard n, and the expression made by one nding near the writer that "he nt every word he said" seemed to e the opinion of all. No one seemed e in a hurry to say "goodby" and as late when the pastor, stationed time he came director of the Gloversville Military Band. During his leadership Mr. Lucas has gathered around him in the membership of the organization a select number of artists and under his efficient direction the band now occupies the proud position of being one of the finest musical organizations in New York State. Everywhere the band has appeared it has elicited the most favorable comments. The efficiency of the organization is being steadily forward- ed and the citizens of Gloversville may well be proud of its famous band and leader. Mr. Lucas is a glove manufacturer, being a member of the glove manufacturing firm of Lucas & Kennedy, Johnstown, N. Y.

Surprise Party.

Gloversville, April 20.—Wednesday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Snook, No. 50 Park street, was taken possession of by a number of their friends, the occasion being the 52d anniversary of Mr. Snook's birth. C. Ody, in well chosen words, and on behalf of the company, presented Mr. Snook with an elegant Morris chair. The recipient could hardly find words with which to show his appreciation of their gratitude, but thanked his friends for their kindness. Games of cards were soon in progress and Miss Ada Snook rendered some fine selections on the piano and several of the company assisted with fine songs. The gentlemen responsible for the pleasant occasion are Messrs. C. Ody, E. Hammond, J. Oaksford, W. Hayward, G. Hood, B. Winberg, W. Crump, J. Lewis, A. Warman, G. Taylor, G. Sutton, E. Bevington, W. Browning, T. Jones, W. J. King, J. Jenkins.

(Subject of Illustration.)

The Late REUBEN F. HUSTED.

Gloversville, April 20.—Reuben F. Husted, aged 68, died last Saturday night at his home, No. 6 Sixth street. He is survived by his wife and one nephew, George Husted, of Baldwinsville. Deceased was a member of the Baptist Church of Broadalbin. The funeral was held Tuesday, Rev. A. W. Bourn, D. D. officiating. The funeral was largely attended by sympathizing friends and relatives. The bearers were T. S. Quinby, Daniel Burton, J. Shutts, William Herring, David Dockstader, and William Harris. The remains were placed in the receiving vault of Prospect Hill Cemetery and later will be taken to Broadalbin, his former home, for burial.

Death of Mrs. Phoebe Briggs.

Gloversville, April 20.—Mrs. Phoebe Briggs, aged 81, died last Friday at her home, No. 88 Second avenue, the cause of death being typhoid pneumonia. Deceased had been a resident of this city for many years and had a large acquaintance. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. G. J. Stanton, of Michigan, and Miss Laura White, of this city. She was a member of St. James' Lutheran Church. The funeral was held from her late home Monday afternoon, Rev. J. J. Dominic officiating. Relatives of the deceased acted as bearers and the remains were placed in the receiving vault of Prospect Hill Cemetery.

—The bubonic plague is primarily due to a specific organism or microbe of infinitesimal size—so small that probably 250,000,000 of them would be required to cover a square inch of surface.

—The United States government has decided to make some change in the smokeless powder used in the army, as it appears to have proved more dangerous to our soldiers than to the enemy.

CHARLES E. DEUEL, of Broadalbin.
EX-SUPERVISOR AND CIVIL WAR VETERAN WHO DIED LAST WEEK.

CHARLES E. DEUEL.

Well-known Ex-Supervisor Who Died at Broadalbin.

Gloversville, April 20.—Charles E. Deuel died at his home in Broadalbin last week Wednesday aged 60 years and 6 months. Mr. Deuel was stricken with apoplexy on March 22, and only since that time has he shown any signs of consciousness, and then only for a few minutes, when he recognized some of the members of his family. Mr. Deuel was well known in this city, where he had many friends. He was born in Providence, Saratoga county, November 15, 1839. He was a son of Seneca Deuel, who was a justice of the peace in Saratoga county for nearly 20 years. Early in life he taught school and in 1861 enlisted in Company D, Seventy-seventh Regiment, New York Volunteers, and served until May, 1863, when he was discharged on account of ill health. In 1875 he began the practice of law and in 1881 removed to Broadalbin, where he had continued in the practice of his profession since that time. He was a justice of the peace in Broadalbin for several years and represented the town in the Board of Supervisors for three consecutive years and was honored by an election to the chairmanship of the board. He was a wideawake, enterprising citizen and in his death Broadalbin suffers a loss. He is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Jennie Flansburg, of Day, Saratoga county, one daughter, Miss Dorothy Deuel, of Poughkeepsie, and four sons, Seneca, of Rockton, and Edward, Marvin and Charles, of Broadalbin. His funeral was held from his late home last Saturday afternoon.

Toothpicks From Walrus Whiskers.

Among curious articles of commerce are toothpicks made of walrus whiskers, vast quantities of which are shipped from Alaska to Europe. Those who ship them pull them out one by one with special tweezers. They are used principally by the wealthier classes in China and Russia, and are also beginning to come into favor in the most noted clubs in London.

ated President, Anna Stroud; Vice Fieldt, Mrs. Anna Bates; Secretary, Ad Quackenbush; Treasurer, Carl Emery; Chairman of Entertainment Committee, Ora Putman.

The annual meeting of the Sunday school of St. Paul's Lutheran Church Tuesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Superintendent, William H. Meyer; Assistant Superintendent, A. J. Moore; Secretary, M. M. Wilms; Treasurer, J. Sloan Raymond; Librarian, Frank Moore; Second Assistant Librarian, J. Sloan Raymond; Third Assistant Librarian, Fred Fench; Pianist, Bertha Schorister; Assistant Pianist, Margaret Schorister, Frank Hanson; Assistant Primary Department, Mrs. Willard; Assistant Superintendent of Primary Department, Mrs. Willard.

Francis de Sales' Fair.

Gloversville, April 20.—The fair for the benefit of St. Francis de Sales' Church to-morrow (Saturday) evening preparations have been made to make it a splendid success. The features of inducement to the public are the great graphophone band and concert quartettes, comical stories and a precision and perfect performance—and our own Gloversville Military Band for Saturday night at the rooms of the South Company at 7:30, and march to the office of the McKeever Rifle Company to St. Emmeran's Church, where the audience will be seated in a royal manner.

Age Walking Pace of a Man.

A man walking pace of a man is said to be 75 years old. The world's longest walk was made by a man who walked 100 miles in 10 days.

th
Co at af
The Lar
ab
aw gol
C. del
Be
Fes
Mis
wat
ton
two duri
Gl
lows
prep
be h
to h id, o whic
tful
this to p
tions
long along Utica.